FPPA Elects New Board

BEL AIR, MD: The Flexographic Pre-Press Platemakers Association (FPPA) proudly introduces its newly elected president and board of directors for 2010.

Greg Hauber, CSW, Inc. of Ludlow, Massachusetts will be leading FPPA as president. Hauber's term as president comes on the heels of a successful convention in Fort Myers, Florida.

Supporting Hauber is a strong cabinet of officers including Immediate Past President, Peter Cappas, United Engravers, Inc.; President-Elect, Carlton Boon, V.T. Graphics; Treasures, Ron Moles, Southern Graphics; and Secretary, Ken Ricks, Mark/Trece, Inc. Graphic Systems. Jeff Mosely, Container Graphics; Pat Sullivan, Dynamic Dies; Bob Hannum, DuPont Imaging Technologies; and Elmer Graff, Anderson Vreeland are also serving on the 2010 Board.

During his acceptance speech, Hauber encouraged members to get involved in the Association by volunteering on its committees. Hauber highlighted the strong programs that FPPA has planned for the coming year, including the return of its Fall Management Workshop, details on date and location to be available on the FPPA website soon.

FPPA will hold its next Annual Convention at Loews Ventana Canyon Resort in Tucson, Arizona, February 20-22, 2010.

The purpose of the Flexographic Pre-Press Platemakers Association is to foster, promote, improve and enhance high standards of efficiency and cooperation within the flexographic pre-press platemaking industry.
